Lyrics by Irvin Berlin

Sung by Fred Astaire and Judy Garland

Called by Corben Geis

Dedicated to Bruce Williamson, original caller for this singing call
"Happy 90th Brucie Baby"

OPENER - MIDDLE BREAK - CLOSER

Four little ladies chain now, 3/4 round the ring go
Four ladies gonna chain, straight across that ring
Sides face, grand square and walk eight steps
Allemande left that corner and weave around the ring
I'll be all in clover, and when they look you over
Do a dosado your girl and then you promenade
In your Easter bonnet, with all the frills upon it
We'll be the proudest couple in the Easter parade.

FIGURE

1 & 3 you square thru, four hands around you go now
Around the corner lady, dosado you know
Swing thru for me, boys run right you see
Tag the line, all face right, then wheel & deal for me
Pass thru and U-turn back and swing the corner lady
Swing and promenade her go walkin' around the square
In your Easter bonnet, with all the frills upon it
We'll be the proudest couple in the Easter parade

TAG

I'll be the proudest fellow in the Easter parade

Caller's note: Listen to Cory's optional lyrics in the Middle Break
