

Red Dancing Shoes

RH-509

Called by
Tony Oxendine

OPENER - MIDDLE BREAK - CLOSER

Sides face, grand square
Well, your red dancing shoes
Walked away with my blues last night
You were wearing a dress
That could get you arrested on sight
4 ladies chain across and back
You let your perfume dance around in the room
Turn your girl and promenade her back home
And you let your red dancing shoes
Walk away with my blues last night

FIGURE

Those heads (sides) promenade and take her
Half way around
Come on and square thru
4 hands around you will do
Then do a right & left thru
You veer to the left and ferris wheel
In the middle square thru 3/4 around, that corner you swing
Swing that baby, promenade round the ring
And you let your red dancing shoes
Walk away with my blues last night

TAG

Just let your red dancing shoes
Walk away with my blues tonight
