

IF I COULD WRITE A SONG

WWI-1003

Called By Graham Elliott

OPENER/ MIDDLE BREAK/ CLOSER

If I could write a song,

As beautiful as you.

Walk around your corner then you see saw your own,

Allemande left and weave the ring.

Songs are only words that rhyme.

Swing and then you promenade.

This will be forever true,

There is no song ... as beautiful as you.

FIGURE

(Head) couples lead to the right, circle four break out to a line,

Go forward up and back,

Touch one quarter then you circulate,

Single hinge, girl trade and recycle round,

Slide thru, square thru count to three,

Left allemande and promenade.

And this will be forever true,

There is no song ... as beautiful as you.
