OPENER - MIDDLE BREAK - CLOSER

Sides face, grand square

*If you've got a road map of Texas

You can see that it's a wide open state

From Amarillo down to Beaumont

You can bet that it's a honking tonking place

Circle to the left

Well you lead off with the cotton-eyed Joe

Buck & wing & heel & toe

Left allemande and promenade now

Well the beer signs hanging by the door

Sawdust on that ole dance floor

Tip your hat for the Pecos Promenade

FIGURE

Well the heads you promenade go about halfway round the ring

Now 2 & 4 you do a dosado

Star thru, pass thru and swing the corner round

Left allemande and weave the ring

Well you're gonna lead off with the cotton eyed Joe

Buck & wing & heel & toe

Dosado and promenade now

Well the beer signs hanging by the door

Saw dust on that ole dance floor

Tip your hat for the Pecos Promenade

ALTERNATE LYRICS

*They may like to rock & roll in Dallas

And disco down in Galveston Bay

But when God made those west Texas cowboys

He gave them the Texas promenade

*Tonight was the first time I saw her

We can still hear those twin fiddles play

Well, Houston starts to feel like a lone star heaven

As we dance to that Pecos Promenade

Well the old signs hanging by the door
