

The Hand That Rocks The Cradle

DR-1035

Called by Frank Sanders

OPENER - MIDDLE BREAK - CLOSER

Sides face grand square

There ought to be a hall of fame for mamas

Creation's most unique and precious pearls

Circle left

And heaven help us always to remember

Allemande and promenade

The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world

FIGURE

Heads (sides) touch 1/4, the boys run right

Make a right hand star

Heads star left inside once around you go, dosado

Slide thru, square thru 3/4 round

Then swing your corner, promenade

The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world

FIGURE (PLUS)

Heads (sides) touch 1/4, the boys run right

Touch 1/4, scoot back

Boys run then, a right & left thru you go

Pass the ocean you know, explode the wave, then chase right

Swing your corner, promenade

The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world
