

You Know Me Better Than That

Called by Jerry Story

OPENER

Circle left

Baby since you left me there's somebody new
She thinks that I'm perfect I swear
Walk around your corner lady, seesaw your own
Allemande on the corner & weave the ring
She likes my ambition, thinks I'm talented too
Swing with your girl & promenade round the ring
She tells her friends I'm perfect and that I love her cat
But you know me better that that

FIGURE

Heads (sides) square thru in the middle & get 4 hands around
To the corner lady there, touch 1/4
Follow your neighbor & spread
Explode and go right & left thru
Send her back with a dixie style
Those boys trade, boys run around a girl
Girls, roll your man away & promenade him that way
She tells her friends I'm perfect and that I love her cat
But you know me better that that

MIDDLE BREAK - CLOSER

I miss picnics in blue jeans and buckets of beer
Now it's ballet at symphony hall
Walk around your corner lady, seesaw your own
Allemande on the corner & weave the ring
Oh I caught her with an issue of Bride's Magazine
Staring at dresses and picking out rings
She tells her friends I'm perfect and that I love her cat
But you know me better that that

TAG

Honey, you know me better that that
